

THE OUTPOST

A soft breeze blows
she does not let it show
Past broken heart alone to plan
Hunting to kill every man

Travelling into the unknown
One goal but she is alone
No trust or bond all is cold
Skills unmatched actions are bold

Ride through danger to reach the outpost
Survival not assured when you need it the most
Alone she comes in, but unity will boast
Ride out victorious from the outpost kindness given, she can see there's other people's needs

Heartfelt affection in every turn
A secret History she must learn

A friend in a brewer loves her heart
A knight to love restraint is smart
A Queen adores her, but she needs to rise
A foe would kill her & death his prize

Ride through danger to reach the outpost
Survival not assured when you need it the most
Alone she comes in, but unity will boast
Ride out victorious from the outpost

Feel on the wind there is a way through Love is deceiving & fleeting not truth
Fight it, Deny it friendships and love
So beautiful and strong but hard and tough

Through danger solid they stand
United searching the whole land
A book to the prophecy as planned
To defeat the enemy alliance in hand

War begins secrets unfold
Realm opened defeating the old
Enemy escapes scheming runs strong
She finally feels loved and can belong

Ride through danger to reach the outpost
Survival not assured when you need it the most
Alone she comes in, but unity will boast
Ride out victorious from the outpost

Story not ending for the outpost
War's just beginning heroes to boast
New adventure defeated almost Come share love & laughter on the outpost

Ride through danger to reach the outpost
Survival not assured when you need it the most
Alone she comes in, but unity will boast
Ride out victorious from the outpost
